

Behaviour Management Contract

We have drawn up this contract of behaviour following the events of last academic year when you were unwell and your behaviour towards staff and fellow students became unacceptable and in some cases distracting and disturbing.

You have taken some time off and are receiving some help to manage the medical condition causing this behaviour and if you are to make a successful return we think it is necessary to set up some clear boundaries and guidelines for you.

Therefore we have written this contract with to outline what these boundaries and guidelines should be.

We are prepared to let you return to study but with the following conditions:

- You abide by the College Code of Conduct as expected of all students in Kingston College
- You behave in a manner that comes within the acceptable 'norm', e.g. that you will not do things such as sitting or lying on the floor or the window ledge during lectures
- If you feel unwell or depressed or if you are not managing to control your emotions you will tell a member of staff so that we can take measures to support you
- To attend lectures regularly and punctually

If you are unable to keep to the terms of this agreement you will be asked to leave the premises and your position on the course will be reviewed.

I agree to abide by the term and conditions of this contract
