

Design should include use of local materials

Design in keeping with existing structures

Creating a local identity

Considering relationship with existing communities

Creating buildings with high energy usage

Reducing the need for travel

Minimising materials and resource usage

Combining areas for work, living and leisure activities

Considering links to public transport

Considering the management and maintenance of the buildings

Improving pedestrian routes

Improving cycle routes

Considering the impact on the natural environment

Creating an attractive environment

Increasing car journeys

Including affordable housing

Considering locally produced energy

Reducing waste

Fitting in to local development plan

Providing local access to services such as shops and schools

Considering the lifespan or re-use of buildings

A
Not very important

B
Important

C
Very important