

Activity resource - Introducing magnetic fields and the electric motor effect

The activity is embedded in the session plan. For each learner you will need:

- a mini-whiteboard
- one AA cell
- one short piece of wire with the insulation removed at each end
- one nail
- two strong cylinder magnets (provided in the bigger resource pack).

If you wish to generate your own card exercise, use the template-creation software in the bigger resource pack.